

Camp Quality appoints new Ambassadors of Optimism

Camp Quality is thrilled to announce the appointment of a number of new ambassadors. Aussie favourite Kate Ritchie (Home and Away, Underbelly) has been appointed Sydney ambassador for Camp Quality's biggest annual fundraiser, the Chandon Supper Club, while Carla Bonner (Neighbours) will take on the duties for Melbourne.

Carla, Hugh Sheridan (Packed to the Rafters) and Chris and Courtney Murphy (Australian Idol) have come on board as national ambassadors to help spread fun, laughter and optimism to children and their families living with cancer. They have been chosen by Camp Quality because they live the Camp Quality philosophy- they are optimistic, hands on and heart led, as well as inspiring role models.

Carla Bonner has played series favourite Steph Scully on Neighbours for the past 10 years. She is mother to two sons, Harley and Jhye.

Hugh Sheridan is a newcomer to Australian television, scoring the role of Ben Rafter on Ch 7's hit new show Packed to the Rafters. He studied acting at NIDA and landed the role during his final year.

Chris and Courtney Murphy captured Australia's hearts during their appearance on Ch 10's Australian Idol. Courtney appeared on the program in 2004 and made it to the top 3, while Chris followed his brother's lead and entered the competition in 2006 - making it to fourth place. The two perform with their brothers in their band Murphy's Lore.

Camp Quality is the children's family cancer charity that believes in bringing optimism and happiness to children and their families living with cancer. They believe that laughter is the best medicine. Camp Quality supports over 5000 children and families and holds over 120 camps a year, for children aged four to 18. They provide a number of services such as their education, hospital and family support programs.

Camp Quality looks forward to working with all their new ambassadors and is grateful for their support.
